

Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office of the Governor

Whereas, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty, and concern for others, and each of these attributes can be ascribed to Kerrill Morrison, who has served over 29 years of service for the state of South Dakota; and,

Whereas, Kerrill furthered her education at South Dakota State University and The University of South Dakota; and,

Whereas, In September of 1984, Kerrill began her public service career as the Deputy Clerk of Courts in Brule County. In June of 1993, Kerrill joined the Department of Revenue as a Revenue Auditor, advanced to Senior Revenue Auditor, and finished her career as a Level 2 Auditor; and,

Whereas, Kerrill is known for her exceptional dedication to her job and has represented the Department in a professional manner, with a positive attitude and willingness to help others, and believes the customer comes first. Kerrill is compassionate and cares about her co-workers, often referring to them as her second family; and,

Whereas, Kerrill will retire on December 6, 2013, to spend quality time with her husband, Joe, and her family; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to make special note of this outstanding South Dakotan on this momentous occasion:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim December 6, 2013, as in South Dakota, and I join with her family, friends, and colleagues in wishing her a fulfilling and happy retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-sixth Day of November in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Thirteen.
